Make a nomination for the Jean Fightmaster Leadership Award!

NOMINATION DEADLINE: JULY 14, 2025

ABOUT JEAN FIGHTMASTER

Jean Fightmaster was revered by her friends and colleagues as a “force of nature” and a dedicated union activist who truly embodied her last name. She was an active member of OCSEA for 34 years. Jean held leadership roles with OCSEA District 6 and BWC Chapter 2535, served as OCSEA’s Vice President from 1987 to 1991, and served on the OCSEA State Board of Directors. She was also part of the first state bargaining team that negotiated the first-ever OCSEA state collective bargaining contract in 1986.

Jean passed away in 2023. To celebrate Jean’s life and union legacy, OCSEA has created The Jean Fightmaster Leadership Award, which will be awarded at the 36th Biennial Convention in Cleveland this August.

Jean Fightmaster (2nd from right), with OCSEA union leaders at the time, Ron Alexander, Betty Lynds and Ron Ronomous, attends the 16th Biennial Convention in the 1980s.

Jean Fightmaster participates in negotiations in the 1980s.

ABOUT THE AWARD

The Jean Fightmaster Leadership Award will be given to the OCSEA member who best exemplifies Jean’s leadership, advocacy and dedication to our union. Get the full award criteria and nomination instructions at OCSEA.org/JeanFightmaster.
